

PRESS RELEASE

Surprise your Valentine with a trip to Moscow!

For anyone still in search of a last-minute Valentine's Day gift, the Ostend-Bruges airport, in collaboration with Aeroflot subsidiary Pobeda, has a unique idea for you: a trip to Moscow! The West Flanders airport offers a visa service on their website, greatly facilitating travel to this beautiful city. The brand new scheduled service launches March 7th, with ticket prices as low as 30€ each.

Vanessa Flamez, Marketing & Communication Manager Ostend-Bruges Flanders International Airport:

"Moscow is a very versatile and surprising destination to explore with your Valentine. Stroll around the Red Square, admire the unique subway stations, visit Saint Basil's Cathedral and the impressive Kremlin. Enjoy unique activities, such as exploring the city by bike, or attending a performance at the world-famous Bolshoi Theater.

The three available flights every week offer flexibility to those departing from Ostend, traveling quickly, inexpensively and comfortably to Moscow. A whole world awaits them, not only in Moscow, but across Pobeda's entire network across Russia. Anyone still looking for a unique Valentine's Day gift, a trip to Moscow is now within reach!
